

DCANS Capital Limited

and

(Name of Proprietary Trader)

PROPRIETARY TRADING AGREEMENT

In order to fight the funding of terrorist activity and money laundering, DCANS Capital like other financial institutions is required by law to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who trades an account, including legal persons such as corporations and partnerships. When an account is opened, DCANS Capital asks for information to identify the person trading the account and in some cases the persons controlling the account. We may also ask for identifying documentation.

This Agreement contains the terms and conditions upon which DCANS Capital Limited (“DCL”) agrees to provide services to the Proprietary Trader specified on the signature page of this Agreement (the “Proprietary Trader”). Each of DCL and the Proprietary Trader is referred to as a “Party”, and, together as the “Parties”, for purposes of this Agreement.

Terms and Conditions

1 Services

DCL shall establish one or more cash or margin accounts (the “Account”) in which credit may be extended, designated by the name of the Proprietary Trader or DCL and any of its agents. The Proprietary Trader shall not make available for delivery from the Account, or provide to DCL, any cash and/or securities. DCL provides a proprietary trader a funded trading account with funds provided by DCL.

2 Applicable Law

The Proprietary Trader acknowledges that this Agreement is subject to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, including, without limitation, those of all U.K. and, if applicable, non-U.K., regional and local governmental authorities, self-regulatory organisations, markets, exchanges and clearing facilities (collectively referred to herein as “Applicable Law”).

3 Margin

- 3.1 DCL will provide increasing trading capital from time to time depending on proprietary trader experience and returns. DCL may also suspend trading account without notice in its commercially reasonable discretion and in light of, among other things, market conditions applicable to the relevant securities, including the size of any position.

4 Collateral; Right to Rehypothecate

Any securities credited to the Account shall be held by DCL as custodian, subject to any rights or obligations imposed on DCL by Applicable Law. Proprietary Trader expressly grants DCL the right, subject to Applicable Law, without further notice to Proprietary Trader, to hold, register and re-register any Collateral (as defined in Section 10.1) in the name of DCL or in another name, and to pledge, repledge, hypothecate, rehypothecate, sell, lend, or otherwise transfer or use any amount of the Collateral, separately or together with other amounts of Collateral, with all attendant rights of ownership (including the right to vote securities), for the sum due to DCL, or for a greater sum and for a longer time than the Obligations (as defined in Section 10.2) or Contracts (as defined in Section 10.2) with respect to which the Collateral was pledged and without retaining in their possession and/or control a like amount of similar Collateral, and to use or invest cash Collateral at its own risk. For the purposes of returning any Collateral to the Proprietary Trader, DCL’s obligations shall be satisfied by delivering securities of the same issuer, class and quantity as the Collateral initially transferred.

5 Fees and Costs

The Proprietary Trader shall pay to DCL, on demand, DCL's reasonable costs (including setup costs specifically related to a trading account). Such fees will be those as may be specified by DCL from time- to-time. DCL shall have the right to debit the Account for any payment due under this Agreement or any Contract.

6 Minimum Equity

6.1 The minimum equity requirement is subject to periodic review and may be adjusted at the sole and absolute discretion of DCANS Capital Limited based upon such review. The equity does not represent an ownership interest or any investment in DCANS Capital Limited.

6.2 Forthwith upon request of DCANS Capital Limited, Proprietary Trader will pay any margin requirement based on the Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation's (DTCC) "Value-At-Risk Volatility" calculation pertaining to Proprietary Trader insofar the margin requirement exceeds the Cash Available in the Account. This margin requirement is a measure of volatility risk for unsettled positions and is performed daily by the DTCC. All payments required to be made pursuant to this section will be paid on same day as the margin call by means of an electronic wire transfer.

6.3 Within thirty (30) days after the termination of this Agreement, DCANS Capital Limited shall refund to the Proprietary Trader the equity in the account plus any accrued profit thereon less any unpaid charges, costs, and expenses and a reasonable reserve, if any, for any known or expected additional costs, expenses, or charges arising out of the clearing relationship. DCANS Capital Limited might withhold such a reserve related to any open dispute or balances owed after the Proprietary Trader has been notified previously of such amount(s) and has had an opportunity within a period during the thirty (30) days subsequent to termination to remedy such dispute or any necessary or negotiated payment.

7 Termination

Except where an Event of Default (as defined in section 11) occurs (in which case Section 12 shall apply with respect to termination): this Agreement may be terminated by either Party upon giving written notice to the other; provided, however, that this Agreement shall remain in effect as to any transactions, including unsettled transactions, or Obligations (as defined in Section 10.2) that remain outstanding. The Proprietary Trader shall pay to DCL all reasonable costs incurred by it in transferring any securities and money held by it under or in connection with the termination of this Agreement to the Proprietary Trader or to its order. No party shall incur a penalty upon termination.

8 Representations and Warranties

The Proprietary Trader represents and warrants to and for the benefit of DCL as of the date hereof, which representations and warranties will be deemed to be repeated on each date on which an Obligation is in existence or a transaction or Contract is effected for the Account, that:

8.1 the Proprietary Trader has full power and is duly authorised to execute and deliver this Agreement and each Contract, and this Agreement and each Contract has been, or, in the case of Contracts entered into after the date hereof, will be duly executed and delivered by the Proprietary Trader; and the execution, delivery and performance by the Proprietary Trader of this Agreement and each Contract and the fulfillment of the Obligations, do not and will not result in a breach or violation of any law, rule, regulation, order, or award binding on the Proprietary Trader or its property, or the Proprietary Trader's organisational documents, or any material contract or other instrument binding on or affecting the Proprietary Trader or any of its property.

No person (other than DCL) has an interest in the Account or any Collateral or other assets or property held therein or credited thereto.
- 8.4 unless the Proprietary Trader otherwise informs DCL in writing, the Proprietary Trader is not an affiliate of the issuer of any Collateral and no Collateral is subject to any legal or contractual restrictions on sale for the account of the Proprietary Trader.
- 8.5 the Proprietary Trader agrees to comply with Applicable Law relating to short sales, including but not limited to the requirement that, unless exempted by Applicable Law, a short sale may not be effected through DCL unless the Proprietary Trader has first determined with DCL that the securities will be available for delivery. The Proprietary Trader, when placing with DCL any short sale order, will designate it as such, and when placing with DCL any sell order long for an account, will designate it as such. Any sell order which the Proprietary Trader shall designate as being "long" is for securities then owned by the Proprietary Trader and, if such securities are not then deliverable by the Proprietary Trader, the placing of such order shall constitute a representation by the Proprietary Trader that it is impracticable for the Proprietary Trader then to deliver such securities to DCL but that the Proprietary Trader will deliver them as soon as it is possible to do so.
- 8.6 Proprietary Trader represents to be a member firm in good standing of any and all exchanges of which it is a member. Proprietary Trader is not registered as a market maker or specialist in any stock and agrees to promptly notify DCL if this condition changes.
- 8.7 Proprietary Trader agrees to comply with DCL policies and margin maintenance requirements set by DCL from time to time.
- 8.8 The Proprietary Trader's financial statements and similar documents previously or hereafter provided to DCL: (a) do fairly represent the financial condition of the Proprietary Trader as of the date of such financial statements and the results of its operations for the period for which such financial statements are applicable; (b) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and with its organisational and constituent documents; and (c) if audited, have been certified without reservation by a firm of independent public accountants. Since the date of its most recent audited financial statements, there has been no material adverse change in the business, financial condition, or results of operations of the Proprietary Trader, except as disclosed in writing (with notice of receipt) to DCL.
- 8.9 If required by Applicable Law or as otherwise required by DCL, the Proprietary Trader (i) has adopted and implemented anti-money laundering ("AML") policies, procedures, and controls (collectively, "AML Policies") that comply in all respects with the requirements of applicable AML laws (or if the Proprietary Trader is not subject to AML laws, it will comply as though it were subject to such laws); (ii) will at all time adhere to its AML policies, and will update them as required by, and in order to continue to comply with, Applicable Law (or if the Proprietary Trader is not subject to AML laws, it will comply as though it were subject to the laws); (iii) has, in accordance with its AML Policies, verified the identity of,

and conducted reasonable, risk-based due diligence (and, where appropriate, enhanced due diligence) with regard to, persons having a beneficial interest in the Proprietary Trader of from whom the Proprietary Trader acts as agent or nominee in connection herewith and will provide DCL with information regarding such persons upon request; (iv) will monitor for, and when required by Applicable Law, make regulatory filings, including reports of unusual or suspicious activity; (v) maintains records of procedures used to verify the identity of its investors and updates such information on a regular basis; and (vi) will certify upon DCL's request as to the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements contained in this Section 8.9 and Sections 8.10 and 8.11 and hereby agrees to advise immediately DCL of any changes that affect the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements contained in this Section 8.9 and Sections 8.10 and 8.11.

8.10 To the best of the Proprietary Trader's knowledge and after conducting reasonable due diligence, all of the sources of the Proprietary Trader's funds, including those from its investors, are legitimate and the Proprietary Trader will maintain and make records of such due diligence available to DCL upon request.

8.11 Neither the Proprietary Trader, any person controlling or controlled by the Proprietary Trader, any person having a beneficial interest in the Proprietary Trader, nor any person for whom the Proprietary Trader acts as agent or nominee in connection herewith is: (a) an individual or entity that is named as a Specially Designated National or Blocked Person by the U.K. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"), or an individual or entity that resides, is organised or chartered, or has a place of business, in a country or territory subject to the OFAC's various sanctions/embargo programmes; (b) a resident in, or organised or chartered under the laws of (i) a jurisdiction that has been designated by the Secretary of the Treasury as warranting special measures and/or as being of primary money laundering concern, or (ii) a jurisdiction that has been designated a non-cooperative with international money-laundering principles by a multinational or inter-governmental group such as the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering ("FATF") of which the United Kingdom is a member; (c) a financial institution that has been designated by the Secretary of the Treasury as warranting special measures and/or as being of primary money laundering concern; (d) a "senior foreign policy figure," or any "immediate family" member or "close associate" of a senior foreign political figure, or regulations issued thereunder; or (e) a prohibited "foreign shell bank" or regulations issued thereunder, or a U.K. financial institution that has established, maintains, administers, or manages an account in the U.K. for, or on behalf of, a prohibited "foreign shell bank".

8.12 The Proprietary Trader agrees that it will be solely and exclusively responsible for any prospectus delivery and notice obligations with respect to sales by the Proprietary Trader of securities registered under the Securities Act. The Proprietary Trader also agrees that, in respect of any securities purchased by the Proprietary Trader that are registered under the Securities Act, the seller of the executing broker, and not DCL, will be solely and exclusively responsible for any prospectus delivery or notice obligations to the Proprietary Trader. In either event, the Proprietary Trader agrees that DCL shall have no obligation to deliver any prospectus or notice to any purchaser from the Proprietary Trader nor to deliver or forward to the Proprietary Trader any prospectus or notice DCL may receive (via electronic means or otherwise) in any capacity.

9 ERISA

9.1 The Proprietary Trader represents and warrants (which representation and warranty will be deemed to be repeated at all times until the termination of this Agreement) that the Proprietary Trader is not (A) an "employee benefit plan"

The Customer will provide written notice to DCL in the event that it is aware that it is in breach of this representation and warranty or is aware that with the passing of time, giving of notice, or expiry of any applicable grace period it will be in breach of this representation and warranty.

- 9.2 The Proprietary Trader agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties (as defined in Section 13.1) from and against any cost, damage, or loss (including, without limitation, any excise taxes, fines, penalties, interest, profits disgorged, restitution and any related attorneys fees and expenses) incurred by the Indemnified Parties as a result of the representation and warranty in Section 9.1 being or becoming untrue or any breach of ERISA, caused by the Customer which exposes the Indemnified Parties to any cost, damage or loss (including, without limitation, any excise taxes, fines, penalties, interest, profits disgorged, restitution and any related attorneys fees and expenses). To the extent that any assets of the Proprietary Trader consist of “plan assets” of any benefit plan investor who may not, as a matter of law, be charged with or contribute to the indemnity provided by the Proprietary Trader hereunder, the Proprietary Trader shall not be excused from any portion of its obligation under the indemnity, but, rather, the Proprietary Trader and all other parties who may be charged with the indemnity shall continue to be jointly and severally liable.

10 Credit Protection

- 10.1 The term “Collateral” shall mean (i) the Account; (ii) any cash, securities, commodities, general intangibles, and other property which may from time-to-time be deposited, credited, held, or carried in the Account, that is due to the Proprietary Trader, or that is delivered to or in the possession or control of DCL or any of DCL’s agents and all security entitlements with respect to any of the foregoing; (iii) all of the Proprietary Trader’s right, title or interest in, to or under any Contract; and (iv) all income and profits on any of the foregoing, all dividends, interest and other payments and distributions with respect to any of the foregoing, all other rights and privileges appurtenant to any of the foregoing, including any voting rights and any redemption rights, and any substitutions for any of the foregoing and any proceeds of any of the foregoing, in each case whether now existing or hereafter arising (together with the accounts in which such property and financial assets are held).
- 10.2 The Proprietary Trader hereby assigns and pledges to DCL all Collateral, and the Proprietary Trader hereby grants a first priority security interest therein, a lien thereon and a right of set-off against any Collateral, and all such Collateral shall be subject to a general lien and a continuing first security interest, in each case securing the discharge of all Obligations and liabilities of the Proprietary Trader to DCL, whether now existing or hereafter arising and irrespective of whether or not DCL has made advances in connection with such Collateral. For purposes of this Agreement, “Obligations” shall mean any and all obligations of the Proprietary Trader to DCL arising at any time and from time-to-time, whether or not mature or contingent, related to the purchase, sale or loan of securities or other property, or under or in connection with any and all Contracts. “Contract” means this Agreement as well as any other agreement, contract, instrument or document of any kind or nature, as to which, in each case, the Proprietary Trader is a party, has any obligations or holds any rights, and DCL is a party, has any obligations or holds any rights, regardless of how documented and whether written or oral, together with all such purchases and sales, agreements, instruments and other documents, including, without limitation, payment and delivery obligations, obligations relating to the extension of credit or to pay damages (including costs of cover) and payment of legal and other expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of Contracts.
- 10.3 The Proprietary Trader and DCL hereto acknowledge and agree that the Account is a “securities account” and all property and assets held in or credited from time-to-time to the Account shall be treated as a “financial asset”; provided that, any such account may also be a “deposit account” or a “commodity account”.

DCL represents and warrants that it is a “securities intermediary” and is acting in such capacity with respect to the Account. In the event of a breach or default by the Proprietary Trader under this Agreement or any other Contract to which DCL is a party or under which DCL has any rights, DCL shall have all rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under any applicable law or applicable in the relevant jurisdiction in addition to the rights and remedies provided herein. In exercising its rights and remedies as a secured creditor, DCL shall have the absolute discretion to determine which Collateral to dispose of and which Contracts to terminate and/or accelerate. All Collateral delivered to DCL shall be free and clear of all prior liens, claims and encumbrances (other than liens solely in favor of DCL), and the Proprietary Trader will not cause or allow any of the Collateral, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to be or become subject to any liens, security interests, mortgages or encumbrances of any nature other than security interests, liens and encumbrances solely in favor of DCL; further, Collateral consisting of securities shall be delivered in good deliverable form (or DCL shall have the power to place such securities in good deliverable form) in accordance with the requirements of the primary market or markets for such securities. The Proprietary Trader shall execute such documents and take such other action as DCL shall reasonably request in order to perfect and maintain DCL’s rights with respect to any such Collateral. The Proprietary Trader shall pay the fees for any filing, registration, recording or perfection of any security interest contemplated by this Agreement and pay, or cause to be paid, from the Account any and all taxes and levies imposed on the Collateral by any authority. In addition, the Proprietary Trader appoints DCL, as the Proprietary Trader’s attorney-in-fact to act on the Proprietary Trader’s behalf to sign, seal, execute, and deliver all documents, and do all such acts as may be required, to perfect the security interests created hereunder in, or to realize upon all rights in, the Collateral. Nothing in this Agreement providing for a security interest in Collateral pledged in connection with a particular Contract or Obligation shall affect any calculation of margin or right of DCL to require additional margin or other Collateral to secure any other Contract or Obligation.

- 10.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Contract, (i) no cash or securities shall, during the continuance of this agreement and until all Obligations have been discharged in full, be capable of being withdrawn, assigned, used, transferred or otherwise disposed of or encumbered or settles on trust or otherwise have a trust declared over them by the Proprietary Trader except with the prior consent of DCL and DCL shall not pay any net sum due to the Proprietary Trader following the application of the close-out and netting or enforcement provisions except with the prior written consent of DCL; and (ii) the Proprietary Trader may not assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of or encumber or settle on trust any rights under any Contract except with the prior written consent of DCL. Any such consent given under (i) and (ii) shall operate as a release of the relevant Collateral from the security interest and the provisions of this agreement shall continue to apply to the remaining Collateral from time to time. If at any time DCL consents to such release, that consent shall in no way constitute a waiver of DCL’s rights to refuse to give consent.
- 10.5 DCL’s security interest in the Collateral shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the payment and performance in full of all of the Proprietary Trader’s Obligations and termination of this Agreement by the Parties, (ii) be binding upon the Proprietary Trader, its successors and permitted assigns, and (iii) inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, DCL and its successors, transferees and assigns.
- 10.6 The Proprietary Trader will notify DCL not less than thirty (30) days prior to any change in the Proprietary Trader’s type of organisation, jurisdiction of organisation, organisational identification number, place of business (if it has, or after such change will have, only one place of business) or chief executive office (if it has, or after such change will have, more than one place of business).
- 10.7 The security interest created by or pursuant to this Agreement shall be a continuing security interest notwithstanding any intermediate payment or settlement of account and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Obligations are fully and finally discharged, provided that any withdrawal or other disposal by the Proprietary Trader, of any of the property subject to the security interest created by or pursuant to this agreement shall operate as a release of such property and the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply to the remainder thereof. The security interest created by or pursuant to this Agreement shall be in addition to and shall be without prejudice of any other security interest, guarantee, indemnity, right, or remedy of whatever nature which DCL may now or at any time have in respect of any Obligation.

10.8 The Proprietary Trader, at its own expense, will execute or cause to be executed all such documents, and will do or cause to be done all such things, which are reasonably requested by DCL (i) to enable DCL to enjoy, exercise, or enforce their rights as secured parties and (ii) to evidence, and to establish and maintain the perfection and first priority, of DCL's security interest in any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Proprietary Trader, at its own expense, will execute and give or file, or both, all notices and documents (including, but not limited to, notice of the security interest created by or pursuant to this Agreement) in such manner, to such persons, and at such places as may be reasonable requested by DCL concerning said security interest. The Proprietary Trader irrevocably and by way of security authorizes and appoints DCL as its attorney (with full power of substitution), on its behalf and in its name or otherwise, at such time in such manner as DCL thinks fit to do anything which the Proprietary Trader is obliged to do (but has not done) in respect of the collateral and to exercise any of the rights conferred on DCL in respect of the Collateral (but DCL shall not have any obligation to do so) and, if DCL does so, the Proprietary Trader shall on demand indemnify DCL against such step or act. The Proprietary Trader ratifies and confirms and agrees to ratify and confirm whatever DCL, as its attorney, shall do in the exercise or purported exercise of the power of attorney granted by this Section 9.8

11 Events of Default

11.1 It shall be an Event of Default by the Proprietary Trader (without regard to whether the relevant event is continuing) if:

11.1.1 the Proprietary Trader fails to fulfill or discharge any Obligation or breaches, repudiates, misrepresents, or defaults (for this purpose, the occurrence of an Additional Termination Event with respect to the Proprietary Trader under any swap agreement or similar contract shall be considered a default) under any provision of this Agreement, any Contract, or any other agreement as to which the Proprietary Trader, DCL, or any affiliates of DCL is a party, or has any obligations or holds any rights, including but not limited to the failure to pay any sum payable or to deliver any securities required to be delivered under or in connection with this Agreement or any such Contract or any such other agreement between Proprietary Trader and any affiliates of DCL, in each case, on the due date thereof;

11.1.2 the Proprietary Trader fails to fulfill or discharge any Obligation other than the obligations set forth in Section 10.1.1 above or breaches, repudiates, or defaults (for this purpose, the occurrence of a termination event, an additional termination event, or similar event with respect to the Proprietary Trader under any swap agreement, similar contract, or any Contract shall be considered a default) under any provision of this Agreement, any Contract or any other agreement or any contract as to which the Proprietary trader is a party, or has any obligations or holds any rights and such failure is not remedied on the due date thereof;

11.1.3 any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or statement by the Proprietary Trader in this Agreement or in any document delivered under or in relation to this Agreement, any Contract or any Obligation is not complied with or proves to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or, if it had been made on any later date by reference to the circumstances then existing, would have been incorrect in any material respect on that later date;

11.1.4 DCL reasonably determines that, in its reasonable opinion, any security interest intended to be created by or pursuant to this Agreement is not in full force and effect or does not have the priority stated herein;

11.1.5 The Proprietary Trader (or any guarantor guaranteeing the obligations of the Proprietary Trader) admits in writing its inability, or becomes generally unable, to pay its debts as such debts become due, as determined by DCL in its sole and absolute discretion, or any step is taken or legal proceeding started by any person seeking a levy of attachment against any property or Accounts of the Proprietary Trader (or against any guarantor guaranteeing the obligations of the Proprietary Trader) or a determination of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Proprietary Trader or for the appointment of a receiver, administrator, trustee, or similar person is made in respect of the Proprietary Trader (or in respect of any guarantor guaranteeing the obligations of the Proprietary Trader) or for the liquidation, winding up, administration, dissolution, or reorganization of the Proprietary Trader (or any guarantor guaranteeing the obligations of the Proprietary Trader) or its merger with or into any other person(s) and DCL believes that such step or proceeding has a reasonable basis;

- 11.1.6 if the Proprietary Trader is a partnership, any person, legal or natural, becomes a partner of the Proprietary Trader after the date hereof (a) without the assignment and transfer of the rights and obligations under this Agreement, and each Contract and each transaction thereunder, to, and the corresponding assumption of such rights and obligations by, the incoming partner, as partner, and (b) without DCL's prior written consent (and event under this subsection, a "Change of Partner Event");
- 11.1.7 The Proprietary Trader's investment manager or advisor on the date hereof ceases to act as such;
- 11.1.8 the Proprietary Trader fails to comply with the policies and margin requirements set by DCL from time to time;
- 11.1.9 an event of default, a termination event, an additional termination event or other similar event occurs in relation to any guarantor guaranteeing the obligations of the Proprietary Trader under any agreement where such guarantor is a party;
- 11.1.10 the Proprietary Trader shall suspend or delay the redemption of all or any portion of its shares or the Proprietary Trader shall fail to timely pay, or suspends the payment of, any redemption proceeds with respect to such shares; or
- 11.1.11 DCL, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers it necessary or desirable for its protection to exercise the rights described in Section 12.
- 11.2 The Proprietary Trader shall notify DCL immediately in writing if any of the above Events of Default occur (or if any event occurs that with the passage of time or the giving of notice would become an Event of Default).
- 11.3 If at any time DCL has reasonable grounds for insecurity with respect to the Proprietary Trader's performance of any of the Contracts or of any Obligations, DCL may demand, and the Proprietary Trader shall give, adequate assurance of due performance by the Proprietary Trader within twenty-four (24) hours, or within any reasonable shorter period of time DCL demands. The adequate assurance of due performance may include, but shall not be limited to, the delivery by the Proprietary Trader to DCL of additional property as Collateral. Any failure by the Proprietary Trader to give such adequate assurance of due performance shall constitute an independent, material Event of Default under the terms of this Agreement and each other Contract.

12 Default Provisions

- 11.1 For the purposes of this Section 11, all sums not denominated in dollars shall be converted into dollars at the rate that DCL shall determine in its commercially reasonable discretion.
- 11.2 At any time on or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, DCL may, without further notice to the Proprietary Trader, terminate, close, liquidate, and accelerate any and all Contracts and exercise any right under any security relating to any Contract and any right to net or set off payments which may arise under any Contract or other agreement or under Applicable Law, cancel any outstanding orders for the purchase or sale or borrowing or lending of any securities or other property, or sell any or all of the Collateral (either individually or jointly with others), or buy-in any securities, commodities, or other property of which the Account may be short, after which the Proprietary Trader shall remain liable for any remaining deficiency, loss, costs, or expenses incurred or sustained by DCL in connection therewith. Such sale, purchase, or cancellation may be made on the exchange or other market where such business is then usually transacted, or at public auction or at private sale, without advertising the same and without any notice of the time or place of sale to the Proprietary Trader or to the personal representatives of the Proprietary Trader, and without prior tender, demand, or call of any kind upon the Proprietary Trader or upon the personal representatives of the Proprietary Trader, all of which are expressly waived. DCL may purchase the whole or any part thereof free from any right of redemption, and the Proprietary Trader shall remain liable for any deficiency. A prior tender, demand, or call of any kind from DCL, or prior notice from DCL, of the time and place of such sale or purchase shall not be considered a waiver of DCL's right to sell or buy any Collateral at any time as provided herein.

- 11.3 At any time or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, DCL shall have all of the rights and remedies available to a secured party with respect to the Collateral. In addition, at any time on or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, DCL shall have the right, at any time on or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, (i) to net, set off, and/or recoup any and all of the obligations of DCL to the Proprietary Trader (whether matured or unmatured, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated) against any and all Obligations of the Proprietary Trader then due to DCL, and (ii) to foreclose on, liquidate, sell, or collect on any Collateral and apply to proceeds thereof to satisfy any and all Obligations of the Proprietary Trader to DCL. The Proprietary Trader hereby agrees that the fulfillment of the obligations of DCL to the Proprietary Trader under any Contract is contingent upon there being no breach, repudiation, misrepresentation, or default (however characterized) by the Proprietary Trader which has occurred and is continuing under any Contract.

13 Indemnity and Liability

- 13.1 The Proprietary Trader agrees to indemnify and hold DCL, and each of its directors, officers, agents, employees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") and permitted assigns, harmless from any loss, claim or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, when and as incurred by DCL in connection with its acting or declining to act in any capacity under this Agreement for the Proprietary Trader or resulting from or arising out of or related to statements made or omitted by the Proprietary Trader in its offering documents or any action taken or not taken by DCL in accordance with this Agreement or pursuant to instructions received by DCL from the Proprietary Trader or its agents, and to fully reimburse DCL for any reasonable legal or other expenses (including the cost of any investigation and preparation) when and as incurred by DCL in connection with any claim, action, proceeding, or investigation arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or any transactions hereunder or Contracts or any activities of DCL in connection with this Agreement. In case of the sale of any security, commodity, or other property by DCL at the discretion of the Proprietary Trader and DCL's inability to deliver the same to the purchaser by reason of failure of the Proprietary Trader to supply DCL therewith, the Proprietary Trader authorizes DCL to borrow or purchase any such security, commodity, or other property necessary to make delivery thereof. The Proprietary Trader hereby agrees to be responsible for any loss which DCL may sustain thereby and any premiums which DCL may be required to pay thereon, and for any loss which DCL may sustain in connection with this delivery obligation.

- 13.2 In no event shall DCL be held liable for damages or for any loss of any kind caused, directly or indirectly, by government restrictions, exchange or market rulings, suspension of trading, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorist acts, insurrection, riots, fires, flooding, strikes, failure of utility services, accidents, adverse weather or other events of nature, including but not limited to earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes, or other conditions beyond DCL's control. In the event that any communications network, data processing system, or computer system DCL uses or which is used by the Proprietary Trader, whether DCL owns it or not, is rendered inoperable in whole or in part or is subject to delay or error, except if caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of DCL, DCL shall not be liable to the Proprietary Trader for any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense resulting, either directly or indirectly, therefrom.

- 13.3 In case any proceeding (including any arbitration and any governmental investigation) shall be instituted involving any Indemnified Party, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify Proprietary Trader in writing and the Indemnified Party shall be permitted to retain its own counsel, notwithstanding Proprietary Trader's duty to indemnify. It is understood that Proprietary Trader shall not, in connection with any proceeding or related proceedings in the same jurisdiction, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one law firm (in addition to local counsel) for all Indemnified Parties, and that all such fees and expenses shall be reimbursed as they are incurred. Proprietary Trader shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding affected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent, or if there shall be a final judgment for the plaintiff, Proprietary Trader agrees to indemnify the Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an Indemnified Party shall have requested Proprietary Trader to reimburse the Indemnified Party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated in this Section, Proprietary Trader agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than thirty (30) days after receipt by Proprietary Trader of the aforesaid request, or (ii) Proprietary Trader shall not have reimbursed the Indemnified Party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement. Proprietary Trader shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, affect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding.

14 Successors and Assigns

DCL may at any time assign or transfer all or part of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement or any transaction effected pursuant to this Agreement or under any other Contract to any affiliate that is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or as part of a transfer of all or part of its business or, with the prior written consent of the Proprietary Trader (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), to any other person. DCL shall after any such assignment or transfer and to the extent (if at all) appropriate or required hold the security interests created by or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Contract for itself and as trustee for each assignee or transferee. Any reference in this Agreement to DCL shall be construed accordingly and shall also include its successors, permitted transferees, or assignees. The Proprietary Trader may not assign its rights hereunder or any interest herein or under any other Contract without the prior written consent of DCL. Any attempted assignment by the Proprietary Trader in violation of this Agreement shall be null, void, and without effect. Any permitted assignee of a Party's rights and obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof shall become vested with all the benefits and obligations in respect of the assigning Party.

15 Suitability; DCL not an Adviser or Fiduciary

15.1 The Proprietary Trader is knowledgeable and experienced in connection with any transactions (including any receipt of credit) that it enters into pursuant to this Agreement and has or will seek any requisite independent advice in respect of such transactions. In particular, the Proprietary Trader has determined, based on its own independent review of this Agreement and each Contract, the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby and such independent advice (investment, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or otherwise), that this Agreement, the Contracts and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby are fit, proper and suitable for it and that it is capable of bearing any losses that may result from the transactions.

15.2 The Proprietary Trader acknowledges and agrees that it shall not receive, and has not received, any advice (investment, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or otherwise) from DCL in connection with this Agreement or any Contract or any transaction hereunder or thereunder, and no communication shall be construed as such advice. If DCL undertakes to provide any advice or opinions from time-to-time, DCL will not be obligated to provide further advice or opinions on an ongoing basis. Notwithstanding any of its rights and duties under this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall make DCL a manager or adviser in respect of any securities or cash and DCL is not required to abide by any particular investment objectives, policies, guidelines or restrictions of the Proprietary Trader. DCL will not be subject to any fiduciary duties towards the Proprietary Trader and will not incur any duty of disclosure towards the Proprietary Trader or be subject to any restriction in dealing for DCL's own account or that of its Proprietary Traders by reason of any services provided to the Proprietary Trader pursuant to this Agreement. If and to the extent that DCL conducts any monitoring of positions, margin leverage or risk in respect of the Proprietary Trader, DCL shall, unless expressly agreed in writing to the contrary, do so for its own purpose and not for, or for the benefit of, any other person.

16 Remedies and Waivers

No failure by DCL to exercise, and no delay by DCL in exercising, any right or remedy will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy. The authority to debit and charge and the right of set-off and other rights and remedies provided in this Agreement are separate, independent, and cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies (including any other security, right of set-off, lien, right to combine or consolidate accounts or similar right) to which DCL is at any time entitled anywhere, whether by operation of law or otherwise.

17 Severability

If at any time any provision of this Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under the law of any jurisdiction, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement, nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provisions under the law of any other jurisdiction shall in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

18 Notices and Statements

Each notice required to be given under this Agreement shall be directed, if to DCL, to such of its officer(s) as may be notified by DCL to the Proprietary Trader from time-to-time, and if to the Proprietary Trader, to such of its representative(s) as may be notified to DCL from time-to-time. Each written communication under this Agreement shall be either mailed, emailed, faxed, or delivered to the addresses specified below or at such other address as the Party may provide, provided that, solely with respect to written communications from DCL to the Proprietary Trader, including transaction confirmations and periodic account statements, DCL may instead post such communications onto the internet with the Proprietary Trader's consent. All communications sent to the Proprietary Trader, whether through the internet, or by mail, facsimile, messenger or otherwise, shall be deemed given to the Proprietary Trader personally as of the date sent or posted. The Proprietary Trader shall review promptly all such communications and shall promptly advise DCL of any error, omission or inaccuracy in the transactions or positions reported. Failure by the Proprietary Trader to object in writing to any communication within 2 Business Days as of the date sent or posted shall be deemed evidence, in the absence of manifest error, that such communication is complete and correct.
